Weather Key Points

Regional Operations Center

Western Region

Wednesday, October 19

- Santa Ana winds with gusts of 30-45 mph are possible across the southern mountains on Wednesday
 - Gusty winds will impact motorists traveling through the mountain passes; unsecured objects may be damaged or blown away. In addition, these conditions will increase fire weather concerns.
- Dry and warmer weather is expected through much of the week, before cooler temperatures and rain chances increase across California towards the end of the week and over the weekend.
 - Minor to locally moderate heat risk are expected Wednesday across central and southern coastal areas
 - Gusty winds are possible Friday into the weekend, which could lead to some transportation impacts, minor damage, and increased fire weather concerns
 - No significant precipitation impacts expected

SMARTER Plan

On 10/17/22, Governor Newsom unveiled the "California Smarter Plan Updates October 2022". The plan emphasizes continued readiness, awareness and flexibility and helps ensure California can maintain its focus on communities that continue to be disproportionately impacted and stay prepared to swiftly and effectively respond to emerging COVID-19 variants and changing conditions. Governor Newsom is set to lift the State of Emergency in early 2023, and this update provides information on California's progress to date and how we move forward.
